

ANNOUNCEMENT

As of January 2014, Framaco International is pleased to announce that we have recently joined forces with Hohmann & Barnard to promote their products internationally.

Hohmann & Barnard is the nation's leader in the development, manufacture and distribution of reinforcement, anchoring, flashing and air barrier systems for masonry.

With offices in Turkey and Qatar, Framaco International is headquartered in New York and is a leader in the distribution and logistics of building materials to contractors in 25 countries.

This partnership further strengthens the position of both companies in international construction markets. The combination of Framaco's established presence in international markets along with Hohmann & Barnard's respected products and brand recognition will, more than ever, fulfill the needs of international clients.

This partnership is also expected to result in greater efficiency and significantly increase international market share for Hohmann & Barnard and Framaco.

Please send your Inquiries to : sales@framaco.com and our team will expeditiously prepare a price proposal along with technical data attached. We look forward to mutual success between the two organizations.
